

SEAN GLAZE

What His Clients Are Saying:

“He was engaging, funny, and effective. Our all-day meeting was broken up with different speakers, activities... and overwhelmingly Sean’s portion of the day was our staff’s favorite part! I would HIGHLY recommend working with Sean and hiring for any large or small scale event you have.”

Meigelle Lapos, H R Manager at Tidewater

“Exactly what our administrators needed to hear. They are all still talking about your message and the team building exercises... The stories were fantastic and a great reminder for all of us that teamwork really does make everything possible. They loved the message about focusing on people and not numbers. The Rapid Teamwork book added a nice touch to the event and they were all excited to leave with their very own autographed copy.”

Mike Mauriello, Rockdale County Public Schools

“Sean was an incredible speaker for our company... with effective exercises that promoted an exciting and trusting bond among the group. I still receive great feedback from my staff about the event.”

Phillip Davis, H R Coordinator for UP TV

7 REASONS TO HIRE SEAN:

What does Sean deliver that other speakers can't, won't, or are afraid to?

1. Sean will clarify your event objectives and customize the presentation so that it supports your theme / goals and contributes to a valuable and relevant experience so your attendees want to come back again next year!
2. Sean will keep the attention and interest of your audience – having spent two decades engaging a classroom of 30 teenagers, he can definitely keep your 300 executives locked in and off their phones!
3. Sean will help promote the event via my social media channels, and can also provide the following options to interested clients:
  - a promotional video to inspire attendance before the event
  - an original article for your newsletter to emphasize key points
  - a follow-up video or program to reinforce and apply the message
4. Because Sean has actually led successful teams built winning cultures, he will share proven insights and tools to improve team performance – not just theories – because he is passionate about growing leaders.
5. Sean will arrive at least 60 minutes prior to the program to meet staff, check the room setup, etc., and will stay after the program to answer questions from the attendees and thank the event staff for their hard work.
6. Sean will smoothly and easily adapt to any unexpected hiccups or technical issues that arise. Because he has delivered keynotes for years, he can continue effectively without slides – and will adjust the presentation so we end on time, even if it started late due to other circumstances.
7. And, of course, because Sean knows that telling isn't teaching," he will incorporate humor, interactions, and experiential learning to keep your audience engaged so the content is remembered and applied!
