SEAN GLAZE

If nothing changes on Monday morning...
the event was entertainment, not transformation.

WHY SMART ORGANIZATIONS HIRE SEAN

Culture is not a policy or a values poster — it is the accumulation of repeated behaviors. And behaviors don't change until awareness does. Every program Sean delivers creates the experiences that shift how people see themselves and each other, then hands them the tools to work better together starting Monday.

THE SHORT VERSION

- 20 years of real team-turnaround coaching
- 5 published books on teamwork and leadership
- 2 sessions in one day for a single investment

INTERACTIVE, NOT PASSIVE

Attendees participate in short, structured activities that turn abstract ideas into personal insight.

A BOOK FOR EVERY ATTENDEE

Every participant leaves with one of Sean's leadership books — included as standard.

CUSTOMIZED TO YOUR TEAM

A pre-event discovery call and an attendee survey shape the content before anything is designed.

HUMOR WITH PURPOSE

People laugh — that's the strategy. Every funny moment is tied to a lesson worth remembering.

MONDAY MORNING IDEAS

Frameworks and tools people can use immediately — not vague inspiration.

REAL LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE

20 years turning around basketball teams with talent but no teamwork. Lived, not theory.

"Three weeks post event and a large section of our team is still talking about Sean. His ability to deliver messages with key phrases has given us a reference in our everyday communications to continue working on becoming better teammates."

RAY MASHBURN · EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, WAIKATO ENTERPRISES

WAYS TO WORK WITH SEAN

CONFERENCE KEYNOTE

45 to 180 minutes of stories, activities, and laughter — perfect as an opener or closer.

TEAM BUILDING EVENT

Facilitated, intentional experiences with relevant, actionable take-aways people can apply.

HALF & FULL-DAY WORKSHOP

Deeper work on communication, accountability, and leadership development.

VIRTUAL PROGRAM

Same interaction and energy for distributed teams, delivered remotely.

HOW DO I GET MY PEOPLE TO ACTUALLY WORK BETTER TOGETHER?

Sean answers the question every leader is really asking.

A CULTURE WORTH SHOWING UP FOR

How to Build a G.R.E.A.T. Workplace Culture

A five-part framework that turns values on a wall into daily behaviors — accountability, trust, and teamwork as everyday habits. Teams leave with shared language and specific behaviors to start Monday.

A REASON TO OWN THEIR RESULTS

What Winning Teammates Do Differently

Talent is never the problem. This program reveals what winning teammates do that average employees do not — and how each person can increase their value, influence, and ownership.

STRONGER AS THE CHALLENGE GETS HARDER

Stay Coachable for Relentless Improvement

A four-part road map for embracing feedback, getting past the ego that blocks improvement, and keeping people open and hungry when the comfortable path disappears.

LOYALTY, NOT JUST COMPLIANCE

What Effective Leaders Do

Leadership is not about what a leader knows — it's about what a leader notices. A practical process for communicating, coaching, and building the trust real accountability requires.

PROBLEMS SEAN HELPS YOU SOLVE

- ▶ Poor communication across teams and styles
- ▶ Silo thinking that slows every decision
- ▶ Resistance to change that stalls initiatives
- ▶ Low trust between departments and staff
- ▶ Employee disengagement and costly turnover
- ▶ Accountability gaps and quiet quitting
- ▶ Leadership inconsistency that erodes trust
- ▶ Team conflict nobody wants to address
- ▶ Culture drift between values and behaviors
- ▶ Collaboration that makes simple projects painful

"Your session struck such a great balance between fun and conversational, yet at the same time deep, impactful, and memorable. Very much on point, and very well received by both execs and troops!"

CAROL FEIGENBAUM • NETBASE QUID

"Extremely professional in all aspects of customizing and delivering his message, and the conference audience was totally engaged."

BRONWYN JUSTICE • CBRE

EVERY ATTENDEE GOES HOME WITH A BOOK

Sean's published titles keep the learning going long after the room clears — included as standard with every keynote and team building program.
